

Do you know someone who still needs help after May's flood?

The Cheatham County Long Term Recovery Organization is partnering with the Christian Reformed World Relief Committee (CRWRC) – Disaster Response Services to find individuals with unmet needs resulting from the flooding in May 2010.

CRWRC-Disaster Response Services will have volunteers in your area from 9/13/10 – 9/24/10. They will be going door-to-door to find people affected by the flooding. These volunteers will be in green shirts and will have identification with them. Or, people affected by the flooding can talk to a volunteer at the walk-in center located at:

354 Frey Street
Ashland City, TN 37015
(old Fred's Store)

The hours are (for both weeks):
Monday, Wednesday, Friday      9am – 4pm
Tuesday and Thursday              9am – 7pm

If you have any questions please call 615-792-1503.

If you or someone you know is seeking assistance with home rebuilding and/or referrals or other needs related to the flooding, please come to the walk-in center or call the phone number above.
